

Objective

Seeking a professional relationship to further my communication, leadership, and design skills as well as acquire new abilities.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Art & Design, Graphic Design concentration May 2011
| Towson University, Towson, MD |

- Dean's List: every semester from Fall 2007 to Spring 2011.
- AIGA student member.
- Invitation to the National Collegiate Honor Society.
- Invitation to the Golden Key International Honour Society.
- Towson University Equestrian Club and Field Hockey Club.

Internship Experience

Towson University Design Center, Towson, MD Sept. 2009–May 2011
| Intern, Design Department |

- Designed variety of pieces for the departments of Towson University including athletic media guides, event posters and programs, brochures, digital media and magazines.
- Increased knowledge of InDesign, Illustrator, Flash, Dreamweaver and Photoshop through various projects assigned.
- Developed and established client relationships using interpersonal skills.
- Established innovative solutions to problems according to project parameters.

Work Experience

BMW&W, Baltimore, MD May 2011–present
| Graphic Designer |

- Expanded web design and coding skills in jQuery, Javascript, CSS and html through a variety of client based websites.
- Improved knowledge and use of printing techniques on an assortment of project sizes, budgets and time constraints.
- Increased design skills through branding and identity strategies, web design, multi-media campaigns, e-mail blasts, print advertising, large scale signs and displays, multiple page brochures and package design.
- Developed and refined the ability to multi task and manage multiple clients' needs and projects according to deadlines.

CSG Commercial Builders, White Marsh, MD July 2009–Jan. 2010
| Marketing Assistant |

- Expanded communication skills with professional phone etiquette and daily interaction with clients and vendors.
- Analyzed and improved the company's new website.
- Gained personal professionalism and dedication to achieving company goals.
- Maintained organization of multiple construction projects' vendors and bidders.
- Designed marketing pieces such as brochures or web ads to increase clientele.